

3rd Validation Workshop: ‘Science 2.0’: Science in Transition

Date: 20 November 2014

Venue: New Europe College Institute for Advanced Study,

21 Plantelor Street, 023971, Bucharest, Romania

DRAFT AGENDA

Chair of morning sessions: Representative of the European Commission

- 9.00-9.10 Welcome speech (Acad. Florin Filip, Director of the Romanian Academy Library and former Vice-president of the Romanian Academy)
- 9.10-9.40 Presentation discussion paper with outcome of consultation and stakeholder specific issues: divergences and convergences (Representative of the European Commission)
- 9.40-9.55 Key stakeholder position: Frank Huisman, Julius Center UMC Utrecht / Descartes Centre
- 9.55-10.10 Key stakeholder position: ERAC/Member State-representative (N.N.)
- 10.10-10.30 Mutual responses among key stakeholder positions
- 10.30-10.45 Coffee
- 10.45-11.45 Question and Answers from the audience to stakeholders
- 11.45-12.30 Policy issues for Member States, Stakeholders and the European Commission: wish lists from stakeholders

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Chair of afternoon sessions: Representative of the European Commission

- 14.00-15.00 Round table on Science & Society: towards a better science: more responsive, more reliable and more efficient

Panelists:

Representative Citizen Science (tbc)

Tracey Brown, Managing Director, Sense About Science

Louis Lapidaire, United Academies

Short statements followed by a discussion amongst panelists and an open discussion with the audience

- 15.00-16.00 Round table with three panelists on any issue related to the policy issues raised in the morning or raised by the audience
- 16.00-16.30 Wrap up: policy issues to take home for Member States, Stakeholders and the European Commission